Soup

"Hey! Kids!" Steve Harrington called as he stepped away from the Byers' kitchen stove. In the midst of all the shit that was going on, no one was really concerned too much with eating. But Mike was screaming at Hopper, Joyce Byers was a wreck because of Bob and Will, and the rest of the kids that weren't screaming or comatose were just left to try and figure out what to do with themselves. So that was where Steve stepped in. "I made dinner!"

Usually you'd expect them to be excited about the prospect of food. Now though? Not that much to just say the least.

Dustin barely looked up. Lucas wrinkled his nose, and Max didn't lift her head from her arms.

"...where did you get tomato soup?" Dustin asked then, with a raised eyebrow. He looked down at the bowl.

"It's a bowl of ketchup I microwaved," Steve said without missing a beat.

Hey, these kids needed to eat something after all. And he'd make sure they did just that.
